

Mrs. Edith Loghry Died Yesterday At Hospital In Lead

Mrs. Edith Loghry, a resident of Lead for the past ten years, died of an acute illness at the Homestake hospital yesterday morning at 7:30 o'clock. She was taken to the hospital Sunday morning. She had been in ill health for the past three years.

A Kansan by birth, she was born at Peoria on July 1, 1883, and following her marriage to William Loghry in Iowa, they came to South Dakota, and in 1909 lived in Lead for a short time. Ten years ago Mrs. Loghry returned to Lead to make her home with her son, Charles, and his wife. In addition to her son she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Marks, of Fairpoint, S. D., who was at her mother's bedside at her passing, and by four grandchildren, and a brother and sister living in Dubuque, Ia

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Rounsevell chapel with Rev. E. E. Whiteside in charge. Interment will be in Mountain Lawn cemetery.
