

When questioned in regard to his future plans, Kime said he plans to open a fruit commission house.

Roy J. Chamberlain, former police chief, and Steve T. Howard, former lieutenant inspector of detectives in charge of the auto theft bureau, are both working as plain clothes men in the detective division.

It is expected that T. Jay Hubbard, inspector of the traffic department, will be retained in his old position, although the chief and commissioner said definite announcement would not be made until after the council meeting Thursday morning.

HARMON SERVICES AT LITCHFIELD, MINN.

Funeral services for John Harmon, former resident of Des Moines who died in Litchfield, Minn., Sunday, will be held at the First Methodist church there at 2 p. m. Thursday, according to word received here. Burial will also be in Litchfield.

Mr. Harmon was formerly with the C. C. Prouty company here. At the time of his death he was secretary and general manager of the Gowan-Lenning-Brown company of Duluth, Minn.

T. C. BALDWIN SEEKS DIVORCE FOR ARREST

T. C. Baldwin sued Mrs. Mima Baldwin for divorce today in district court, charging her with causing without justification his arrest and imprisonment for insanity.

He stated in his petition that

Mrs. Baldwin had been married three times previously.

A petition for divorce was filed by Nellie Rouse against William A. Rouse, 1211 East Seventeenth street. Rouse, she alleged, struck and beat her, used vile and abusive language and threatened her.

DES MOINES SUGAR BROKERS TO TESTIFY

Two officials of sugar brokerage houses in Des Moines have been called to testify with twenty-two others following an investigation in western Nebraska.

Clifton C. Scott, manager of the Meinrath Brokerage company, and H. L. Hills, manager of the Russell, Bend, Hills company admitted Tuesday that they had received subpoenas but said they knew nothing about the case. The Nebraska attorney general's office is said to have been investigating conditions in the sugar beet district of Nebraska preparatory to a meeting of the federal grand jury in Lincoln, Neb., May 1.

DR. RYAN BUYS HOME IN LINDEN HEIGHTS

Dr. Charles Ryan, Des Moines surgeon, has purchased the home of J. R. O'Brien at 4239 Woodlawn drive in Linden Heights and will move there May 1. The residence is of English architecture and is surrounded by spacious wooded grounds.

The Norris Realty company handled the sale.